Z ROCK CAPTURES THE HUMOR, ANGST,
TRIALS & TRIBULATIONS
OF A REAL-LIFE BAND FROM NEW YORK

SUNDAYS @ 11:30 PM ET/PT - PREMIERES AUGUST 24, 2008

Original series Z ROCK is coming to IFC uncensored, uncut and commercial free on August 24, 2008 for ten hilarious episodes. Are you ready to ROCK?!?!

Z ROCK is a 10-episode semi-scripted, comedy series that follows a group of musicians leading a double life: by night they're a hard-partying rock band and by day they're a Wiggles-style kids' party band.

Z ROCK is loosely based on the real lives of its three New York based stars, brothers Paulie Z and David Z, and lifelong friend Joey Cassata and their actual band, Z02, giving a satirical look at the dark underbelly of the rock n' roll dream. IFC gives you a back stage pass to the band's struggle to become rock royalty while dealing with the realities of everyday life, such as accepting gigs they'd rather turn down, dealing with scorned female fans. and most importantly, avoiding their angry husbands!

As they fight for an elusive record deal for the rock band, the kids' band effortlessly becomes more and more successful, and the toast of the town in wealthy Manhattan. When they finally come face-to-face with their lifelong dream: Paulie, David and Joey have to find a way to ascend the throne of rock while keeping it real in the big apple.

Series highlights include re-occurring guest appearances by comedic icon Joan Rivers, comedians Dave Attell, Greg Giraldo, Gilbert Gottfried, with musicians Dave Navarro (Jane's Addiction) and John Popper (Blues Traveler). Sebastian Bach (Skid Row), Chris Barron (Spin Doctors) and comedian Patrice O'Neal also join the mayhem. Series regulars include comedians Lynne Koplitz (the band's manager), Jay Oakerson (club owner), and Alison Becker (Joey's longtime girlfriend).
